There's a little box in the corner
Wrapped nicely to entice you
And draw you in

There's a note saying "Eat me"
And against your better judgment
You have to look inside

But before you walk away
Won't you take me in
Won't you hear me when I say

I will hold you, I will catch you
When you feel like you're falling
When you feel like you're falling

And I'll be near you, I will hear you
When you are calling
When you are calling

There's a bottle on the table
With a label saying "Drink me"
Will you cross the line

And you know you've been here a thousand times
Before intoxicated on the floor
Will you reach back for more

Cause pretty labels, pretty eyes
Will always hit me tight
Will you hear me when I say

I will hold you, I will catch you
When you feel like you're falling
When you feel like you're falling

And I'll be near you, I will hear you
When you are calling

Eat me, drink me, win me, lose me
Either way you have to choose me
Eat me, drink me, love me, hate me

Either way you can't escape me
(Either way you can't escape me)

I will hold you, I will catch you
When you feel like you're falling
When you feel like you're falling

And I'll be near you, I will hear you
When you are calling
When you are calling

I will hold you, I will catch you
When you feel like you're falling
When you feel like you're falling

And I'll be near you, I will hear you
When you are calling
When you are calling

I will hold you, I will catch you
When you feel like you're falling
When you feel like you're falling

And I'll be near you, I will hear you
When you are calling
When you are calling
