The Juliana Theory-The Rainy Day Song(Duane Joseph)

tell your mom you need a day off so we can play out in the rain we'll catch a ride to the mall, go down to the arcade cause that's where all the cool kids hang

cause i don't feel like school today we'll ride our boards down the hill and to the playground where everything's ok tell your mom that we'll be home late cause building cabins in the woods is hard work you always know that i'll be there cause summer time is coming near my closest friend you'll always be you are a hometown kid like me tell your mom to make us lunch now cause we worked up an appetite g.i. joes and karate matches in the backyard where everything's all right now i can see that things have changed we've gone our separate ways now and it's not you and me anymore, it's not you and me why can't it be the way it was when pain was only plastic guns

i couldn't say you are a million miles away i guess i'll hold my breath there is no harm in hoping for change.
