You Always Say Goodnight

Did you really think that it was over,
when you hung up the phone, and said goodnight?
And did you ever think that it'd be too much?
I can't leave without saying ..goodbye.
So did you really think that you could take it?
Could you make it alone tonight?
I never could have hoped for anything more.
Be my angel if you can, alright.
You always say goodnight, and you, you always say goodnight.
So baby did you sleep an hour for me?
How I wish I was there right now.
I wasn't gunna tell you I could change things.
I'm afraid I never will know how.
But I don't really think that I can take it.
Will I make it alone somehow?
So hold me in your arms before I leave you.
I'll be back as soon as time allows.
You always say goodnight, yeah, and you you always say goodnight. Goodnight, Goodnight, Goodnight.
