Hey Tony, won't you pour me another glass of wine?
Yeah, I think I might Stay awhile tonight
I could always take a taxi home
It's not that far at all, I might even walk,
It's a nice night

Na, Na, Na, Na, , yeah

David who? He's a thing of the past, I don't talk about him
He met some artsy chick, and I haven't seen him since Maryann? She's doing great; she might stop by in a little while
I knew that'd make you smile
Yeah, I love this band, I followed them in college
My friend Rebecca dated the drummer
Are you kidding? Of course it didn't work out...
Who's that guy on piano? I don't remember him at all
No thanks, not in the mood to meet somebody new

I, I look around this room
and think of all the people in this world
And I, I know I'm not the only
I'm sure I'm not the only lonely girl
Na, Na, Na, Na

Yeah, my mom still asks me every single day if I met someone
Talks about my sister's kids; blah, blah, blah
Yeah, I'll take another glass, but just one more I think
'Cause I can get sentimental when I drink

I, I look around this room
And think of all the people in this world
And I, I know I'm not the only
I'm sure I'm not the only lonely girl
Na, Na, Na, Na

Ohhh, hey

I, I look around this room

And think of all the people in this world
And I, I know I'm not the only
I'm sure I'm not the only lonely girl
Na, Na, Na, Na

Hey Tony, won't ya close out my tab, don't worry about the cab
I think I'll walk home
