Shame on me for what I'm thinking
Shame on you for making me think
Shame on me for what I'm dreaming
Shame on you for being in my dreams

Blame it on me, I can't quit smiling
Blame it on you and your smiling face
Blame it on me, I can't stop looking
Blame it on you for looking that way

Ain't no point in pointin' fingers
There's enough blame to go around
Tell me since when were there ever two dreamers
That ever had enough sense to slow it down

Shame on me for what I'm feeling
Shame on you for feeling so good
Shame on me, I wanna kiss ya
Shame on you, I believe I could

Shame on me, shame on you
Shame on love and what it's making us do

It's my fault that I'm falling
It's your fault for making me fall
Funny when love comes a calling
It ain't no one's fault at all

Shame on me for what I'm thinking
Shame on you for making me think
Shame on me for what I'm dreaming
Shame on you for being in my dreams

Blame it on me, I can't quit smiling
Blame it on you and your smiling face
Blame it on me, I can't stop looking
Blame it on you for looking that way

Shame on me, shame on you
Shame on love and what it's making us do
