

Alphaville

"Days Full of Wonder"

Visit "Days Full of Wonder" on MotoLyrics.com

When you feel so far away though you're close to everything
And the feeling of estrangement's creeping up on spider's legs
Even in these days of wonder, even in the age of faith
There are some who goin' under There are some who never got it made So you passed so many years in a labyrinth of traces Running round and round they led to no one but yourself
Here comes the eternal stranger
He who has fallen from grace to the iron grounds

And I'm tolling my bell just to let you know I'm here by your side in these days full of wonder In the ashes of your time when the dragon screams for more
The reptiles make their comeback in your eyes
And heroes fall for heroin and heaven falls for fake And doris' daisies burn to hell on the grand parade of lies In the middle of the night when the last of God has died
And the only friend you've got is the heartbeat of the clock
That music plays for all time, the tv light is freezing
The war-paint on your face..

Visit Alphaville page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.