some days you run, run, run you never stop and when you stop you're too tired to think about anything. but some day, when you finally stop, you're able to think and wonder about your breathless running
and if i could have a christmas wish come true... i would wish for nothing but (for) wonderful things
and in your life, which is so precious to me, may troubles, worries never linger;
may they only make you stronger... and may you rise each day with sunlight in your heart and success on your path and answers to your prayers and that smile that i love to see always there... in your eyes...
and if i could have a christmas wish come true...
i would wish for nothing but (for) wonderful things
and in your life, which is so precious to me,
may troubles, worries never linger;
may they only make you stronger...
...and able and wise
...and able and wise
...and able and wise
and if i could have a christmas wish come true... i would wish for nothing but (for) wonderful things
and in your life, which is so precious to me,
may troubles, worries never linger;
may they only make you stronger...
...those wonderful things
...stronger
...those wonderful things
...stronger
...those wonderful things
...stronger
...those wonderful things
