"Everybody Out!"

Everybody out! There's sadness, rage and treachery Everybody out! Corruption and jealousy, no longer can anyone be trusted Everybody out! Thirst, the people are forsaken Everybody out! There's no honor, just oppression and slavery

Everybody out! Thankfulness is gone and ugliness is everywhere Everybody out! The stars have gone out and the sun has gone black Everybody out! There's no more goodness, happiness or prosperity Everybody out! There's no more trees and the birds have stopped singing Everybody out! There's no day or night, only darkness Everybody out! Hell has taken over, there's no beauty left Everybody out! The time has passed, there is no honor Everybody out! There's corruption and war and the blood is running Everybody out! Only the walls are left standing Everybody out! There's fear and so everyone is silent
