(Featuring Karla Bonoff)

Violet rays of heaven,
The misty rain -
Showered on your spanish tile
The day I came.

When you know its over,
There's no words to say.
But I knew the end was near,
When you held me.

Love's falling like tears from the sun.
Love's falling like tears from the sun.

Ooh, ooh.

Drove up to the mission,
And walked around.
I tried to listen to my heart -
But there was no sound.

Though I don't feel bitter at all,
And not to blame -
When it all begins to fall,
I keep going.

Love's falling like tears from the sun.
Love's falling like tears from the sun.

Ooh, ooh.
