In the river where I been weeping
In the holly where the cold wind blows
A list of secrets that I been keeping
First the seed and then the garden grows

The waves tell of a secret seeping
And everything is gonna overflow
And high above, a sky above
I hear a buzzing, I hear a winging
Listen close and hear the birdies singing

La la la la la la la la la la (x4)

Oh the songs you would sing if you had wings
And you could sing anything
I'd sing la la la la la la la la la la
