I dreamt of castles on Sunday at seaside
I saw the trestles turn railroads into turning tides

Our time it marches on
But you don't play along
I'm once again beguiled

I remember you were wild
Always acting like a child
I was the earth, you were the sky
Yeah yeah yeah

Newspaper morning, spilled coffee on the pages
An ashtray forming from crosswords and sages
And I will sing a song
And you will play along
It's one we never tried

I remember you were wild
Always acting like a child
I was the earth, you were the sky
Yeah yeah yeah

Oh oh, oh oh, oh oh, oh oh
I remember you were wild
Oh oh, oh oh, oh oh, oh oh
I remember you were wild
Oh oh, oh oh, oh oh, oh oh
I remember you were wild
Oh oh, oh oh, oh oh, oh oh
I remember you were wild

Grab up umbrellas
In cold and sea or weather
And as the rain falls
We'll hide there together

The winter moves along
The future's coming on
Open wide, we step inside

I remember you were wild
Always acting like a child
I was the earth you were the sky

Oh oh, oh oh, oh oh, oh oh
I remember you were wild
Oh oh, oh oh, oh oh, oh oh
I remember you were wild
Oh oh, oh oh, oh oh, oh oh
I remember you were wild
Oh oh, oh oh, oh oh, oh oh
I remember you were wild
