When life doesn't seem worth the living and you don't really care who you are when you feel there is no one beside you look for a star

when you know you're alone and so lonely and your friends have traveled afar there is someone waiting to guide you
look for a star

oh everyone has a lucky star that shines in the sky up above if you wish on a lucky star you're sure to find someone to love a rich man man, a poor man, a beggar no matter whoever you are there's a friend who's waiting to guide you

a rich man, a poor man, a beggar
look for a star
