"Bedroom Floor"

Waking up on a bedroom floor
I don't remember this no more
Dirty stains on a bedroom floor
I don't remember whose for sure

Took a dive, got away with it
Even the best can drown in it
Took a dive, got away with it
Even the best can drown in it

Living in this man made hell
That is if he'd live to tell
They blame the ones that knew him well

Guess the cameras couldn't tell

He had it all but he wanted more
Took a gun and went for war
Turn into something you won't like
And he won't apologize

Living in this man made hell
That is if he'd live to tell
They blame the ones that knew him well
Guess the camera's couldn't tell

It ain't pretty dear
But it's necessary
It ain't pretty dear
