"Level With Yourself"

Wake up in the morning
Check your revelation
Making sure you know it as well as you can

Then sell it to yourself man
'Cause it won't make a difference
If everyone believes it but you don't believe it

Just level with yourself
Level with yourself
Level with yourself
And be at peace with the

You're making a list of all the negative side effects
That come with the sh*t you let yourself get away with

Oh your god
You're building a wall between the kids and the gasoline
Of editorial and advertising

"Riches I heed not Nor man's empty praise"
Means "F*ck the gatekeeper
'Cause I'm fine outside the gate"

I wanna level with myself
I wanna level with my friends
I wanna level with my kin
And be at peace with them

I'm making a list of all the negative side effects
That come with the sh*t I let myself get away with

Oh my god
I'm building a wall between the kids and the gasoline
Of editorial and advertising
