"Come On"

You feel like you're losing it, you're feeling so low
You live on the ceiling but you don't let it show
I don't know why you say that you hate me
Cause we are the same
So come on, leave it alone
You don't have to stay

And all I need is someone who cares
Like a friend
Cause you know I change every day

So come on
If you keep breathing it in
Then you know how I feel
When you always say I need more time
So come on
If you need to get by
Then you know how it feels
When you say
I'm coming on like a storm

Now you feel like I'm closing in
You feel you can't wait
You've moved to the other side
You feel like you're safe
I don't know why you say that you hate me
Cause we are the same
So come on, leave me alone
Stay out of my way

Cause all I need is someone who cares like a friend
Cause you know I change every day

So come on
If you keep breathing it in
Then you know how I feel
When you always say I need more time
So come on
If you need to get by
Then you know how it feels
When you say

I'm coming on like a storm

Come on, come on, come, you come on
Cause all I need is someone who cares like a friend
Cause you know I change every day

So come on
If you keep breathing it in
Then you know how I feel
When you always say I need more time
So come on
If you need to get by
When you say

Come on, come on, come, you come on
All I need is someone who cares
Come on, come on, come on, you come on
