"Fake A Smile"

Time...of your life
can you make it count?
without a sound there?s noone that makes you feel like a someone with your naked lies and your frozen eyes cuz it?s too late to say your sorry it?s too late to understand all the times you make me worry when the night feels like it?s loaded well the wasted day and the trace of decay and your somewhere it sometimes feels like your nowhere deaf on a cold freeway is that your only way?

all the times you made me worry all the times that I tried to fake a smile have you ever needed someone else and the feeling never fades have you ever had it pulled away from you till there was nothing left to take

all the time that I tried to fake a smile that I tried to fake a smile just to get by
