I guess the party is over now
Drinking stops tonight
It's big fun but it's growing late oh look at the damage done

I've got a tongue that's thick and dry and my eyes are shattered
I've got a mind all set on some kind of sign in peace, tomorrow we will loose another day

Yeah tomorrow we will loose another day, yeah

I waste my time like I always have I'm saving up for the unaccountable
Oh better yeah I'll buy my new shoes now
All in ass, before I loose myself another day

CHORUS

I feel like I've done you so much wrong
I hide out until this day is gone
And I fill in the blanks, I hear you say
"It's okay, I'm lazy, flown away"
So please, let me go

I'm sure the party is over now
I sit back, I watch it fade away
Fading out myself as well
It is time, tomorrow we will loose another day

CHORUS (twice)

So please, let me go
CHORUS (twice)

So please, let me go

I'm sure the party is over now
Guess it's gone for ever
