"Peace Of Mind"

Visit "Peace Of Mind" on MotoLyrics.com

You tell me something, tell me something , something new!
So you - have you ever have you ever told the truth
Lies - they are all around me.
The truth is not for free,
Peace - peace of my mind
Too expensive to get it for free
Hate - hate surrounds me
So you found me understanding
When it's time for changes
All I need is lost or strange
In my desire and fantasy there's hope, love, but nothing for free
In my desire and fantasy there's compassion and charity
You can sigh and you can cry
Tell me now where we can hide
We need a peace of mind
I tell you something, tell you something new for you
There must be a reason to break away for truth
