Strangeland

- remembrance -

You can't remember what's happened yesterday

You only know the old man crossed your way

He's called: " You're lost forever ! Your fate is done ! "

And you'd to notice: " Bad joke - It's no fun ! "

You found yourself alone in a land of solitute

Gamblers at the table with marked cards

You walked through an emty street which had no end

And you were looking back and thought: " Where do I stand ? "

- Who is true ? -

Wherever I've been, I've always known that I will die

Whatever I've done, I mostly feared the way I will leave the usual way of existance

I surely know what I am and I worked hard for it

I will carry on with my dreams and hopes

I won't let someone take them all away

Don't you know - don't you know, now ?

I would stand for what I am

I would be the one who will be known as someone who ist true !

Do you know somebody who speaks like he thinks like he does ???

Who is true ?

I know what I like and I will fight for it if it's on me to defend it all

I will never put my family or friends on the line - no no no no never ! Never !!!

I often hear people pretending to be my friends forever

- but most of them know how to lie

Don't you know - don't you know, now ???

- Apprehension -

Always on the run for something you don't know

Is this the right way you wanna go ?

Why were you here ?

What were you looking for ?

Open your eyes and see your life is getting low !!!

Out in the Strangeland

What did you see ?

Is this the strange land where you wan to be ? Yeah ?
