"The Fear"

Picture me on the edge of sadness
I was too blind to see the truth
My hearts beating fast I'm not alone
But you're not there

Friendly smiles steal a glance
But me I'm furious inside
Can I get out of here now

Everything is falling down on me
And deep inside my mind I know I love you

Time is that all I really got to fear
From all these precious moments of my life
Time is that all I really got to fear
From all these precious moments of my life

You say I do always wrong
So you must hurt me again
I feel so sorry
But you do not
And you're not here

I question why I left you
Ain't love when under your sway
Will I be safe in here now

Everything is falling down on me
And deep inside my mind I know I miss you

Time is that all I really got to fear
From all these precious moments of my live
Time is that all I really got to fear
From all these precious moments of my live

Time is that all I really got to fear time time
Time is that all I really got to fear
From all these precious moments of my live
Time is that all I really got to fear
From all these precious moments of my live
Time time time time
