"A Ghost Of Myself"

Float through the hallway on invisible feet
Vacant eyes refuse to sleep
Trapped by the moon, bound by fate
To haunt this hurt forever

I'm a ghost of myself
Hollow inside, happiness has died
A dream vaporized
Just a ghost of myself, myself

Walk this world but never see you again
Like a fallen angel with a broken wing
What I wouldn't give for another chance
To live in your arms

I'm a ghost of myself
Hollow inside, happiness has died
A dream, a dream vaporized
Just a ghost of myself, myself

A shape without shadow
Lost you and I
Without tomorrow, how can I find
Escape from my sorrow?

I'm a ghost of myself
Hollow inside, happiness has died

I'm a ghost of myself
Hollow inside, happiness has died
A dream, a dream vaporized
