Ah, yeah, a part of me hello see
I'm the new guy
I like presentable top but in the new tie
And I talk in my sleep like where the truth lies
And seeing y'all betraying a different shoe size
So you couldn't walk in mines,
Came to the point almost lost his mind
And yeah, I spoke, let me talk this time
Cause freedom of speech doesn't cost a dime
So who is you what's my life got to do with you?
I'd understand if I knew the shit included you
I got a plan and I think about to go with through
I speak true man this... what it do to you
So I'ma build low thousand bricks
From my mixtapes down to my album shit
I'm free to announce this shit
Yeah I'm free

[Hook]

Like a bird now, when I gotta keep it fly
Haven't heard how, tryina find the reason why
Man I know I've changed
But I can't complain
Said I'm free to break away
Free to make a way

I'm still the og, I keep it low key
I'm in the first row, you in the nose bleeds
And so I proceed, make it to the pro league
And I don't take l's and I don't smoke trees
Where you go, way we go, there he go
He up there high sky, the scenario
It's so beautiful, man, I got them staring yo
Hall of fame, heavyweight champ, Larry Holmes
Keep progressing on each and every record ya
So they saying my speech is intellectual
And I swear I could teach them all the lessons yo
And self believe I'm a beast and nothing less than you
And all of my friends say
The week all around me man, Wednesday
Like I was in the middle but now I can't sing

Make sense, pennies for bills with best faces

[Hook]

Like a bird now, when I gotta keep it fly
Haven't heard how, tryina find the reason why
Man I know I've changed
But I can't complain
Said I'm free to break away
Free to make a way

No team, free aging, be patient
But keep racing, got it on lock, police station
Blast off season, 3 spaceships
Hit it out the ball park, whoa
Freedom always balls hard
Foul, 5 hits then they throw me out
Then I come back loud like holy cow
Hey yo it's better than the best feeling
It's almost better than the sex feeling
Huh, right after you pop the next pill in Take minute break free from the stress feeling
Free yourself from the world like you see yourself
From the skies, stay fly with the sweetest wealth
You need help, but the song just repeat itself
Smile, life short, keep...

[Hook]

Like a bird now, when I gotta keep it fly
Haven't heard how, tryina find the reason why
Man I know I've changed
But I can't complain
Said I'm free to break away
Free to make a way
