I walk on the west side of town
You walk all the other way around
We meet in the middle of the street
Where we both stop and smile and we both show our shiny teeth

When we know that we both live alone
Sex is on our mind so we find our way back to your home
I know we will never meet again
Maybe you can e-mail
Maybe we can pretend

I know you don't really want to know my name
Call me baby and take me to your living space
Don't worry about the flying rumors
We're human in any way
Don't ask if I have another lover
It's not the reason we're here with one another
I know that we never will be friends
We will never meet again

I walk on the west side of town
You walk all the other way around
We meet in the middle of the street
shiny teeth

Sex is on our mind so we find our way back to your
home
I know we will never meet again
Don't promise that you'll call me promise that I know will end

I know you don't really want to know my name
Call me baby and take me to your living space
Don't worry about the flying rumors
We're human in any way
Don't ask if I have another lover
It's not the reason we're here with one another

I know that we never will be friends
We will never meet again

I know this is for one day
Maybe love will find the way
Through this love is hard to find
Maybe you will find the time

I know you don't really want to know my name
Call me baby and take me to your living space
Don't worry about the flying rumors
We're human in any way
Don't ask if I have another lover
It's not the reason we're here with one another
I know that we never will be friends
We will never meet again
