So you think that I'm an asshole
But I'm movin', movin' and you're standing still
And you think I've got a problem
Cause I'm hungry and I never get my fill
Life's too short for trivia, there is no time to waste
I do things deliberately and meet them face to face
I see people digging in and making all these plans
I just run and jump around I'm Anti Hero Man
So you think that I'm lonely
By your standards I'd rather be that way instead
And you think you've got the answer
There's no question, follow and you'll be misled
Let's not get too serious there is no time to waste
I do things deliberately and meet them face to face
I see people digging in and making all these plans
I just run and jump around I'm Anti Hero Man
