If I could find a way to believe
And you could rescue me then I'd leave
I'd pick myself up off the floor
And maybe we could run through it all
But you're pulling me till I give

The way that you touch me, the way that I feel
The way that you own me, the soul that I need
There's gotta be some way to be there tomorrow
There's gotta be some way 'cause you're a dick to me
I'm outta control

And everybody said that they knew
That my collapse was way overdue
But I could show the world one day
That you could blow my world away
But you're pulling me till I give

The way that you touch me, the way that I feel
The way that you own me the soul that I need
There's gotta be some way to be there tomorrow
There's gotta be some way 'cause you're a dick to me
I'm outta control, I'm outta control

The way that you touch me, the way that I feel
The way that you own me the soul that I need
There's gotta be some way to be there tomorrow
There's gotta be some way, some way

The way that you touch me, the way that you own me
There's gotta be some way to be there tomorrow
There's gotta be some way 'cause you're a dick to me

I'm outta control, I'm outta control
I'm outta control, I'm outta control
I'm outta control, I'm outta control
I'm outta control, I'm outta control
