Just another day my dear, choking in the atmosphere
And if I just breathe in maybe I'll black out
And there's someone else you need to get you steppin' over me
And if I just breathe in maybe I'll black out

'Cause you know, yeah you know
You know, I can always see right through you

Oh no everything has changed
You may never be the same
I know disappoint my rage for you and me
It's a long way down

Just another day my dear, another lie to overhear
And if I just explode, would anybody notice me?
I've been inside my shell, I just came out to wish you well
And if I just explode, would anybody notice me?

'Cause you know, yeah you know
You know, I can always see right through you

Oh no everything has changed
You may never be the same
I know disappoint my rage for you and me
It's a long way down

Nah, nah, nah, nah, nah
Nah, nah, nah, nah, nah

Oh no everything has changed
You may never be the same
I know disappoint my rage for you and me
Oh no everything has changed
You may never be the same
I know disappoint my rage for you and me

It's a long way down
It's a long way down
It's a long way down
It's a long way down

Such a long way down
