I believe in something more
I believe that there's too much
When i fall down flat on my face
I'll cry to the world (i'm strong enough with you)
Do you think you'll come help for me
I close up my world inside
I see tears in your eyes
I still run in the brave

Where ever you are
I am with you

Do you think it will be alright
If i could just stay home tonight
'cause i'm tired of these lies
Whatever happened to me

Now i'm back on the floor
A thousand miles ahead of me
This is where i call my home
For the past two and half long years
Its back on the pavement
I'm looking out this window
I miss your face and i miss my heart
Right here

Where ever you are
I am with you

Do you think it will be alright
If i could just stay home tonight
'cause i'm tired of this life
Whatever happened to me

I'm thinking about this again
A thousand miles away
You'll think you me when...

Where ever you are
I am with you

Do you think it will be alright
If i could just stay home tonight
'cause i'm tired of this life
Do you think it will be alright
If i could just stay home tonight
'cause i'm tired of these lies
Whatever happened to me

I think about this again
A thousand miles away

I think about this again
Whatever happened to me
Whatever happened to me...
