"Tall Boy"

Tears and rains everywhere I go
I'm tired of this weather long ago
Twenty thousand yen to go
To get a ticket for a next goal

Oh boy, I lost another game
It's all the same
I hear your fame

Maybe it's just a game
But it's not the same
I kill your fame

Maybe he is deceiving maybe I should grab the money and run...
Because today is the day, if I say so

Today is the day if I try so

Tall boy what can you see from there
Tell me exactly what you see
Oh boy, don't show your back too long
Feels like I wanna start a game again...

Today is the day if I say so
Today is the day if I try so
Today is the day today is the day

Today is the day if I say so
Whenever is the time if you do so... If you do so
