Oh baby
3 strikes and you're out

I should have listened to my friends, oh babe,
Cos they were making perfect sense
I should have known, I might have guessed
I could have seen,
That you were trying to push your luck with me
Had a chance to make amends
Too many times and now I can't forgive again

First time, I can let it pass a mistake
But you two timed you nearly threw it away
Third time and I think I'm gonna to have to say
Three strikes and you're out

First time, I can let it pass a mistake
But you two timed you nearly threw it away
Third time and I think I'm gonna to have to say
Three strikes and you're out

I should have left you the first time
But you managed to convince me otherwise
You've been playing again,
You've done the same again
And you've asked for my forgiveness
Well you can bring in on,
Pull the other one,
Let me tell you
Three strikes and you are out

First time, I can let it pass a mistake
But you two timed you nearly threw it away
Third time and I think I'm gonna to have to say
Three strikes and you're out

First time, I can let it pass a mistake
But you two timed you nearly threw it away
Third time and I think I'm gonna to have to say
Three strikes and you're out

You're asking too much

To think I'll forgive you
You should have thought before you moved
You cheated on me
Oooh, too many times
Now you've had your last chance

No no baby

First time,
Two time,
Third time
Three strikes and you're out

First time, I can let it pass a mistake
But you two timed you nearly threw it away
Third time and I think I'm gonna to have to say
Three strikes and you're out

First time,
Two time,
Third time
Three strikes and you're out
