Did you believe you'd get away with it
I got you back you could not handle it
You went too far this time you did
Mistook me for a fool you could not resist
So i exposed you babe for what you are
I left you standing and became a star
How many people care about where you are
Do they believe you when you say i went too far

Your in denial again
Your in denial again
Stuck in the mud again
Look at yourself .. look look look at yourself

Dont look at me as if you wish me dead
Why have a problem with my self respect
I wont let someone destroy my confidence
One of these days you will destroy yourself

Your in denial again
Your in denial again
Look at yourself .. look look look look look
