I could, I could never show you
Eyes like steel bars to hold you
It's 2 a.m. and you're kneeling
You're praying no one can see you now
You're stuck, stuck in your own skin
Bleeding, bleeding is wearing you thin
If it's war they want, then it's war they'll get
So don't faint from holding your breath

You're holding onto hopes and dreams now
With angels wings to catch you when you fall down
Sing harmonies and all those songs that make you
happy
Sing with me baby won't you sing with me
Won't you sing away your past now
Won't you sing it with your new breath

Don't you hurt her on the inside
She takes so much from the outside
Don't be afraid of what's coming
Save your breath, and wish it all away now
Winter, winter's been so cold
Won't you, take this all alone
Thoughts of you pour down her face
And all she wanted was one embrace

You're holding onto hopes and dreams now
With angels wings to catch you when you fall down
Sing harmonies and all those songs that make you
Sing with me baby won't you sing with me
Won't you sing away your past now
Won't you sing it with your new breath

You never danced like you danced with me today
Won't you just follow my lead
Maybe you can stand upon my feet
Don't ever look down down, you'll never look down

So sing away the past now,
Sing the harmonies and songs that make you happy

Sing with me, won't you sing with me
