Well sarcasm pours from my veins now and all
You want to do is to drink your life away
Hearttaker, you're no better love maker, you
And your bottle are inseparable tonight. yeah
"Multicolored lights in the night sky", your Beautiful voice is bleeding blue.

So tell me if you still have a spine, you
Show me yours I'll show you mine, 'cause now you're gone
Show me yours I'll show you mine, 'cause now you're
gone

And i want you to remember this song
Will sting you forever you're gone your so cold,
You're gone, you're so cold
Oh please choke on your tongue now it's gettings
In the way of everything you need tonight.yeah, cold Night and freezing fingers, that was the pain that i Endured for you, let downs and expectations, just Call me an unbeliever but i don't think you'll get up.

Down where no one sees, no ne feels,
The time has come
And no one dreams, down where no one feels Everything you've given me is all disappearing.
Banging my head, no it doesn't hurt much,
Listening to you, well i cannot bear.

Running away, running away all i can see is your back to me
Where did you go, did you kill yourself?

Run, bleed, burn, die...
