Turn on the light, dismiss that sound
What can it be when there's no one around
I am the thought that twists in your head
Rages and burns, keeps you from rest

Wherever you go, whenever you sleep
That's where I'll be

I am the shadow on the wall
I'll trip you up to watch you fall
Suffocating every move
To paralyze every thing that you do

Wherever you go, whenever you sleep
I'll be the secret forced to keep
Wherever you go, when ever you sleep
That's where I'll be

The feeling is crippling
The throat is tightening
The fists are clenching
Inside is wrenching

Wherever you go, whenever you sleep
I am the one that [Incomprehensible]
Wherever you go, when ever you sleep
I'll be the secret forced to keep

Wherever you go, whenever you sleep
That's where I'll be
