"State Of Alert"

Hear the sirens
Everything has suddenly changed
Can't feel normal
Everyone is looking so strange
Alarmists all around you
See 'em all over the news
There's reason to be uncertain
There's reason to see the end
They got you holding on
Holdin on again
They need you feel uncertain
You're their means to a distinct end
They got you holdin' on
Its a state of alert again
Monday Morning
You're off to work in the rain
Power failure now
You want to, you got to, you want to get off this train
