"Soldier"

Winter's falling
and he wants to row
like a soldier's heart
a screeching crow

What if I
found the guiding beat?
And found the card
to stop the beating heart

You'll find a war for your calling side and wait for the least for the calling card wait
but you go
and your fight will fail
how rough are you
that you watched her fields

if I wait to go
and you love her more
and wait for her shields then calling more
waiting to go
but your fight will fail
how rough are you
that you watched her shields
