I've been watching you

For sometime now

And I've come to understand

This way you move about

As soon as I can chain this burning heart

It will be just like we have arrived

We have become

As soon as I can fill this empty plate

We can live in peace together

I've been listening in

To the silent waves

They move through all of you

And carry on without a sound

As soon I can chain this burning heart

It will be just like we have arrived

We have become

As soon as I can fill this empty plate

We can live in peace together

As I can I can chain this burning heart

It will be just like we have arrived

We have become
