"Responsibility"

It's time for chase,
Now turn around and say
Coz there will be history
It's been a year and a half

Don't like to think about destiny
What would it be?
My one and only,
If i could be on my own

All those empty page
Just make no difference
We're starting all over again
It's my responsibility

If i could only turn back time
Turn back the pages of my life
What if i just swallowed my pride?
Maybe then you'll still be at my side

If i could only hold your love
I'll ask the heavens above
If i just bow down with this smile
Maybe then you'll still be at my side tonight
