1 - How did you get here
Nobody's supposed to be here
I've tried that love thing for the last time
My heart said no, no
Nobody's suppose to be here
But you came along and changed my mind
(my mind, my mind)

I've spent all my life
On a search to find
The love who'll stay for eternity
That heaven sent to fulfill my needs
But when I turn around
Again love has knocked me down
My heart got broke and oh it hurts so bad
I'm sad to say love wins again

2 - So I placed my heart under lock and key
To take some time and take care of me
But I turn around and you're standing here

Repeat 1

This time I swear I'm through
But if only you knew
How many times I've said those words
Then fall again, when will I ever learn
Knowing these tears I cry
There's probably black butterflies
Must take a chance
And spread my wings
Love can make ya do some crazy things

Repeat 2

How did you
How did you get here
Nobody's suppose to be here
Nobody, no, no, no, no, no
No, no, no, no, no
Noooo

Repeat 1 until fade
