I'm sitting next to window
I'm watching the cars going around
I wanna go away from this place
Somewhere where I will be alive

I'm the son of rage and love
I want to bleed for my sins
I'm browsing the day of my death which will make me free

I'm walking through the dark way
I can't see anything around me
I'm stumbling on my feet
I'm searching the way which I will escape

I'm standing on a city tower
I'm looking down and I want to jump
I'm blessing myself for the last time
And now I'm on my way
