Every evening and everyday
I try to call you
I suffer when I don't hear you
So answer my call

I'm searching the right way
The way, I'd like to walk through with you
To walk and get known you better
But you don't care

Tell me why you don't want me?
I went to a shrink
She told me that I'm alright
So what is wrong?

What is going on with me ?
I have weird feelings
I think I fell in love
I fell in the stupid love

Stupid love every day
Stupid love in my head
Stupid love don't come back
Go away!

You found another one
My dreams with you are lost
I don't know what to do
I'm ruined

It's your own way
I just hope you know what you
Now I know I fell in love
I fell in the stupid love
