I don't wanna leave you, but in time you're gonna see that I ain't kidding And though we have sinned all of our lives, we ain't going to hell
Well we're going to the rebel side of heaven

I counted seven dogs laying dead by the road, even ...
While I was lying alone naked and bleeding Found on the phone that there's nowhere but home
In Dallas, we dug for gold We could not find China or hell, so we just dug ourselves into the rebel side of heaven

I don't wanna leave you, but in time you gotta see that I ain't kidding
And though we have sinned all of our lives, well, we ain't going to hell
No, we ain't going to hell
We're going to the rebel side of heaven
