i felt restless and i felt soft didn't know anymore who I was ripping off I packed a picnic lacking seriously on food had more wine than i knew what with to do.

and i just dont know what it is
to be free
to hold and have somebody lean on me you can blame it on your teachers you can blame it on the weather you can blame it on how your mother and your father didn't stick together someday my friends its got to make sense in our heads can't make up our minds till we wake up and make our bed

one day i felt so good nothing could bring me down next morning i awoke i was plastered to the ground whistle your favorite tune when it's all said and done if your maker dont approve at least you know you've had your fun and i just dont know what it is just dont know what it is

to be free
to hold and have somebody
to be free
to go out singing in the rain
to be free
to believe completely in somebody

to be free
to let love win again
