If you got worries, then you're like me.
Don't worry now, I won't hurt you.
And, if you got worries, then you're like me.
Don't worry now, I won't desert you.

If you get a chance, you put your dancing shoes on.
The country's calling, and that's where I'm going.
Don't know if you're in my way, but, I'll take you along.
I'll take you along.

Maybe Blue eyes are more of my style, I don't know.
But, I'm willing to try.
And, maybe I'm dumb for making you smile, I don't know.
But, I will in a while.
We passed a grave yard and held our breath,
We better kiss if we're getting closer to death.

I don't wanna miss ya, I know it's all in our heads,
She says "It's all in our heads."

If you got worries, then you're like me.
Don't worry now, I won't hurt you.
And, if you got worries, then you're like me.
Don't worry now, I won't desert you.

And, if you get a chance, you put your dancing shoes on.
The country's calling, and that's where I'm going.
Don't know if you're in my way, but, I'll take you along.
I'll take you along.
