Zapata's blood
wasn't spilled in vain
so now your moves pullin' moves pullin'
moves pullin' moves pull wage war wage war
to reclaim their name
Zapata's blood
wasn't spilled in vain
so now your moves pullin' moves pullin'
moves pullin' moves pull
wage war wage war
to reclaim there terrain!

on January 1st, 1994 the indigenous farmers of Southern Mexico declared war on an unjust and illegitimate government out of the depths of the most wild, the most poor came a just arms struggle for democracy, justice and liberty and it wont stop until that 65 year old dictatorship The Partido Revolucionario Institucional is buried in the ground and the people's voice is heard once again.
Yeah
So check it out On January 1st of '94 they became known as the Zapatista movement
And they have a saying
And I want you all to sing along with me real quick It goes somthing like this
It goes,
Everything For Everyone And Nothing For Ourselves (repeat 8x)
