I gave away everything that I own
Would you come home?
Would you come home?
I made you space
And I emptied my place for you
Would you come home?
Would you come home?

By the neighbors grace
If I could see your face
Would you come home?
Would you come home?
I ran my race
And I made a place
Would you come home?
Would you come home?

I gave away everything that I own
Would you come home?
Would you come home?
I ran my race
And I made a place
Would you come home?
Would you come home?

I tamed my pain
And I played in the unknown
Would you come home?
Would you come home?
I saved my name
And I played you the poem
Would you come home?
Would you come home?

I gave away everything that I own
Would you come home?
Would you come home?
