Lavender Diamond - Teach Me How To Waken

I could be like lonely
All the lies who I lie
And what happened to later
All my tenderness died
And what seems into purpose
Bring the words of mind
And whatever will pall us
And I'm harder inside
Teach me how to waken
Teach me how to mend
Love is the beginning
And love is the end
And there comes a shadow
Sudden covering mouths
What are we take of?
We are afraid of a rat
My terms are important
But your measure unwrapped
What happened could hold us
In my hand upside
Teach me how to waken
Teach me how to mend
Love is the beginning
And love is the end
Teach me how to waken
Teach me how to mend
Love is the beginning
And love is the end
Teach me how to waken
Teach me how to mend
Love is the beginning
And love is the end
Love is the beginning
And love is the end
Love is the beginning
And love is the end
