I hear ya knock on my door
I ain't been savin' this thing for ya honey Don't wantcha ringin my bell It's too late for you to be my honey ooh, it's my love
ooh, it's my own true love
ooh, it's my love
ooh, it's my own true love, my own Don't wantcha wastin my time Tired of ya doin the things that ya do It's no use standin in line
Follow the line, you better follow queue
I say, ooooh, it's my love oooh, it's my own true love
ooh, it's my love
ooooh, it's my own true, my my own I could stay on the river run-yeah!
But I know that's just I could wish for a million years
But I know I'm still at home
I could cry within the darkness and sail away I could trade a lifetime of (???)
Cause you know, you know, you know what I said
And I say Ooh, it's my love Oooh, it's my own true love
ooh, it's my love
ooh, it's my own true love, my my own Ooh, it's my love
OOh, it's my own true love
oooh, it's my love ooh, it's my my own true love...
I said ooh, it's my love
ooh, it's my own true love
