Just sit still, Radney Foster

The big shot stuck in front of me
He don't know what he's doin'
His blood pressure and cell phone bills
They're gonna be his ruin

You see, minutes measure time
We all know time is money
This traffic jam is God's little joke
But he don't think it's funny

To just sit still, Kill some time
Settle down, enjoy the ride
Take a breath, Take it slow
Relax man, let it go
Just sit still

A young man flips the bird
To what his elders have to say
Respect what time is doin' boy,
Your life will take away

Yet all of that testosterone
That begs forgiveness now
Hell no one really held it
Against you anyhow

So just sit still, Kill some time
Shoot the breeze, enjoy the ride
Take a breath take it slow
Relax hon, let it go
Just sit still

Time's a precious gift,
A treasure yes it's true
So I treasure every moment
I get to waste with you

This crazy world is gonna spin
No matter what we do

Come on darlin' we need a nap,
Its hot this afternoon

So just lay still, kill some time
Hold my hand, enjoy the ride
Take a breath, take it slow
Relax baby let it go
Just still, Take it slow
Life's too precious, just let go
Just sit still
Just sit still
