Been a long time since I've seen your face
I've been down, I've been in lonely places
Now you say you're feeling different
Now you say you're feeling different
Been a long time since I heard your voice Telling me lies I always believe in
Now you're saying something different
Now you're saying something different

Maybe you've seen it all before
But I'm gonna tell you something more
There's no such thing as a second chance
There's no such thing as another try
There's no such thing as starting all over
All you ever did was make me cry

Been a long time since I've seen your eyes
Looking at me, looking through me
Now you're looking somehow different
Now you're looking somehow different
Been a long time since I felt your touch
Pulling me closer, and I can't fight you
Now you're doing something different
Now you're doing something different

Say you want to give it another go
There's something that you have to know

There's no such thing as a second chance
There's no such thing as another try
There's no such thing as starting all over
All you ever did was make me cry
There's no such thing as a second chance
There's no such thing as another try
There's no such thing as starting all over
All you ever did was make me cry

There's no such thing as a second chance
There's no such thing as another try
There's no such thing as starting all over
All you ever did was say goodbye, goodbye, goodbye, goodbye!
