Ever take a drink
Stop and wonder why
Think about where the shadows go
When you turn out the lights

Or why God put tears in men
If we're not supposed to cry
Or what it is we're doing
Here tonight

Ever make a promise with your Fingers crossed just right?
Pull a high school stunt and wonder
Why you're still alive

Why the bumble bee
Don't give a damn
That he ain't supposed to fly?
What are we doing here tonight

I guess what I'm saying is
I really like your style
I guess there's no harm
If we just talk a little while

Anything is possible
This just might work out right
So what are we
Doing here tonight?

Ever have a dream
Watch it slowly fade
Find what you thought was true love
Just turn and walk away

I believe that even if we'll lose
It's worth the fight
Baby, what are we
Doing here tonight?

Anything is possible
This just might work out right

What are we
Doing here tonight?

Ever take a drink
Stop and wonder why
The stars up in the sky
Don't dance like this every night?

Why God put love in hearts
If we're not supposed to try?
Baby, what are we
Doing here tonight?

What are we
Doing here tonight?
What are we
Doing here tonight?
